CREW Lehigh Valley PA (CREW LV PA) is an organization that attracts members who excel in their fields, display leadership in many venues, and win accolades across the community. Within the past year, eight of our members have won honors for excellence. We salute our Women of Achievement!

Jane Long, Esq. — Partner, Fitzpatrick Lentz & Bubba, P.C.

Jane was the Pennsylvania honoree at "Crossing Borders," an annual spring celebration held at the Palace in Somerset, NJ to recognize women of superior achievement. The PA Department of Community and Economic Development named Jane to the 2009 Best 50 Women in Business list; she is also the 2009 Lehigh Valley Suits recipient in the legal profession. Jane is a former board secretary of CREW LV and currently serves on the boards of Lehigh Valley Economic Development Corporation and The BOMA Fund.

Kate Hart — Asst. V.P., Relationship Manager, KNBT a division of National Penn Bank

The Eastern Pennsylvania Business Journal (EPBJ) named Kate in its "20 Under 40" issue, devoted to the outstanding achievements of young professionals. A past president of CREW LV PA, Kate is the first vice president of the East Penn Chamber of Commerce, a regional unit of the Greater Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce (GLVCC). The inaugural winner of the GLVCC Young Athena Award which recognizes emerging leaders, Kate sits on the Board of Governors of the chamber and serves on the finance committee of the Lehigh Valley Conference of Churches.

Stephanie Kobal — Associate, Tallman, Hudders & Sorrentino

Stephanie, a member of the real estate, land development and municipal law practice groups of her firm, was selected by EPBJ for its "20 Under 40" issue. In addition to her service on CREW's program committee, Stephanie is the president of the Ballet Guild of the Lehigh Valley and is active on the fundraising and marketing committees of Summerbridge Academy, a non-profit program to provide educational opportunities to deserving youth. A graduate of the 2011 class of Leadership Lehigh Valley, she also serves on the board of the Parkland Aquatic Club.

Marie Rudzinski — McConnell Associate, Fitzpatrick Lentz & Bubba, P.C.

Specializing in commercial transactions including commercial real estate, financing, leasing, business acquisitions and taxation, Marie was honored in the "20 Under 40" issue of EPBJ as an outstanding young achiever. Serving on CREW's membership committee, Marie also sits on the board of directors of the Allentown Foundation for Schools and the ArtsQuest Performing Arts Board and recently participated in a panel discussion sponsored by the GLVCC on minimizing risk in an uncertain economy.

Tina Kisela — SCSM, SCMD General Manager, Promenade Shops of Saucun Valley

Tina Kisela, a director at large on the CREW LV board, was named the commercial real estate honoree of Lehigh Valley Suits 2011. The program recognizes top professionals in their fields who demonstrate a higher standard of quality of service in its sector, innovation and "horsepower". The event supports Equilibrium, a non-profit which provides therapeutic riding programs for children with special needs. Tina has also received gold and silver Maxi Awards from the International Council of Shopping Centers. Tina serves on the Muhlenberg College Board of Associates and is active in the GLVCC.

Rosalin Petrucci — Marketing Director & Director of Educational Initiatives, J.G. Petrucci Company

A charter member of CREW LV and a former chair of the community service committee, Rosalin is the GLVCC 2011 Athena honoree, recognized for professional excellence, community service, and ability to nurture leadership potential. Rosalin is the sparkplug behind "Crossing Borders" which annually honors NJ and PA women for accomplishments in commercial real estate and economic development while raising funds to support the work of New Choices/New Options of PA and the NJ Displaced Homemakers Network. She is the immediate past president of the NJ Economic Development Association, is a mentor and judge for Lehigh University's IRE@L Practicum and serves on the advisory council Brownfields Environmental Solutions for Trenton.

Jane Schiff — Associate Broker, The Frederick Group, LLC

Jane was honored with the Executive Spotlight Award accorded by EPBJ in recognition of professional excellence and community service. A founding board member and past president of CREW LV, she currently serves as program chair. Jane has taught real estate courses at the Goodman Center for Real Estate Studies at Lehigh University, Lehigh Carbon Community College and Northampton Community College. She has served on the boards of PA Association of Realtors, Lehigh Valley Association of Realtors, Allentown/Lehigh County Board of Realtors and the Allentown Art Museum Society of the Arts.

France Fuller — Marketing Manager, Barry Isett & Associates, Inc.

Francee was selected by EPBJ to receive its Executive Spotlight Award. A founding board member, past president, and current publicity chair of CREW LV, she is a past president of the East Penn Chamber of Commerce and formerly served on the GLVCC Board of Governors. A school director in the East Penn School District since 2001, she is also a member and past president of the Joint Operating Committee of Lehigh Career and Technical Institute. ■
